"I know he will be waiting on the other side when I cross that bridge"

We adopted Cory on January 2009 from NBGR and he became my best friend and shadow. NBGR had given him the name of Ace, but he was Cory to us from the day he came home. He was my constant companion, always waiting at the back door for my return just as I know he will be waiting on the other side when I cross that bridge. Forever grateful to NBGR for rescuing my heart dog.
